

PONY PARTNERSHIPS

There are a number of online activities that you can do whilst you are not able to attend Pony Partnerships CIC – see table below:

EDUCATIONAL SITES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This course is designed as a resource for remote learners during the COVID-19 outbreak. The design is a variety of individual lessons, covering a variety of topics related to horse care and management. It is designed more as a 'buffet' of choices than a course designed around a specific aspect of horse care and management. You need to sign up for the platform before you can access material. 	https://campus.extension.org/course/view.php?id=1795#section-1
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The abilities of equestrian athletes are amazing, but the skills of their horses are even more impressive. Ian Stewart looks at how mathematics can give insights into the different ways horses move in this short article aimed at older students and general readers. 	https://sport.maths.org/content/walk-trot-gallop
